Table 2

Who should be referred to psychiatric services?

A person presenting in primary care who has repeatedly self-harmed or shown marked emotional instability and risk-taking behaviour
A person with diagnosed BPD who is in crisis when: ● levels of distress and risk to self or others are increasing ● levels of distress and risks have not subsided despite treatments