Table 1

NICE criteria for clinical diagnosis of bronchiolitis[1]

Diagnose bronchiolitis if the child has a coryzal prodrome lasting one to three days, followed by:

- Persistent cough and
- Tachypnoea and/or chest recession and
- Wheeze and/or crackles on chest auscultation